

Email Marketing

Targeted emails that get opened, get read and get results.

Want to reach an engaged, diverse professional audience? We have millions opt-in, registered members who provide us with valuable information about their professional lives – and we can use those details and data to target the right people for your email messages.

Our members are in the midst of career and life changes, making them extremely open to new products, services and offers. Here are just a few examples:

- Financial Services
- Professional Development
- Consumer Products
- Education

Our industry-leading email campaigns are effective, affordable and designed for maximum performance:

- Fresh, relevant member data
- Flexible criteria
- Seamless campaign execution
- Performance Reporting
